

Contents

	Note on contributors	7
1	Introduction Timofey Agarin	11
2	The Emergence of a Reasonable Anti-Gypsyism in Europe Huub van Baar	27
3	It is in their DNA: Swedish Police, Structural Antiziganism and the Registration of Romanis Matthew Kott	45
4	Antiziganism as a Structure of Meanings: The Racial Antiziganism of an Austrian Nazi Markus End	77
5	The Road to Empowerment: A Multi-Level Governance Approach Katharina Crepaz	93
6	Roma as a Pan-European Minority? Opportunities for Political and Legal Recognition Sara Memo	119
7	The Subtlety of Racism: From Antiziganism to Romaphobia Ioana Vrăbiescu	143
8	Moral Exclusion and Blaming the Victim: The Delegitimising Role of Antiziganism Diana E. Popescu	171

9	Antiziganism as Cultural Racism: Before and After the Disintegration of Yugoslavia	201
	Julija Sardelić
10	The Root Cause of Romani Exclusion and the European National Roma Integration Strategies	223
	Timofey Agarin	