

Table of Contents

Acknowledgements..... 7

Chapter 1:

Critical thought about global social sciences 9

Michael Kuhn and Hebe Vessuri

Section I: Critiques of critiques of the 'European' social sciences

Chapter 2:

Post-colonialism and Social Theory Revisited 23

Kwang Yeong Shin

Chapter 3:

21st Century Challenges to Social and Economic Sciences: Global Sciences of the Economy and of Individual Behavior..... 41

Huri Islamoglu

Chapter 4:

Towards World Social Sciences:
Why criticizing 'Western Hegemony' does not help..... 63

Doris Weidemann

Chapter 5:

Why arriving at imperial thought is not an accident of critical sociological thinking but the consequent endpoint of international sociological thinking 81

Michael Kuhn

Section II: The European universalism

Chapter 6:

The European Comprehension of the World:
Early Modern Science and Eurocentrism101

Mauricio Nieto Olarte

Chapter 7:
Institutional Re-structuring in the Social Science World: Seeds of Change141
Hebe Vessuri and Carmen Bueno

Chapter 8:
What happened to the spread of universal ideas?..... 169
Reiner Grundmann

Section III: The social science world under the 'European' universalism and beyond

Chapter 9:
Intervening in the Geopolitics of Travelling Theory:
Constraints, Limitations and Possibilities..... 189
Sujata Patel

Chapter 10:
The Impact of Internationalization on Post-Soviet Social Sciences and Humanities 205
Igor Yegorov and Pal Tamas

Chapter 11:
Poverty and Social Sciences:
Pauperology as Apology for Modernity 229
Kumaran Rajagopal

Chapter 12:
Academic Working Culture: Shifting from National Competitions towards Transnational Collaborations 249
Kazumi Okamoto

Biographical Notes 275