

Contents

Anita Stasulane

Foreword: Religion and Magic behind the Iron Curtain ..... 9

James M. Nyce, Alexandra Coțofană

Introduction ..... 21

Larisa Jasarevic

Science of the ‘Almost Marvelous’: Storytelling Bees among (Non)Moderns ..... 37

Zlatina Bogdanova

The Heritagization of “Kalinitza” feast in Assenovgrad, Post-socialist Bulgaria: A Case of Syncretism between Paganism and Christianity..... 71

Sibelan Forrester

Lingering Orality in the Contemporary Russian Zagovor..... 91

Gabriel Girigan

Conversion to Pentecostalism and the “Rudari” Community from Filiași in the Context of Romanian Post-Socialism ..... 115

Reet Hiimäe

Magic in Soviet and Post-Soviet Estonia..... 135

Danijela Jerotijević

Trust and Credibility of Folk-healers and other Magical Agents in Contemporary Serbia ..... 161

Iveta Leitane

From Tartu Semiotics to Enlightened Magic: Transformations within Scholarly Discourse in Latvia during the Transition from Socialism to Post-Socialism ..... 189

René Provis

Spiritual Hybridity and Religion in Post-Soviet Kyrgyzstan .. 213

Ioana Repciuc

Getting into the Spirit of the Season: Winter Customs between Magic and Religion in Rural Romania ..... 245

James M. Nyce, Alexandra Coțofană, and Jessica Pollock

The Moral and Ontological Ambiguity of a Borderland: Identity, Magic, and Witchcraft in Bucovina, Northern Romania ..... 281