

Contents

A European Crisis: Perspectives on Refugees, Europe, and Solidarity Nevena Nancheva and Timofey Agarin	7
A Common Commitment: Civil Society and European Solidarity in the ‘Refugee Crisis’ Katharina Crepaz	29
Resisting Euroscepticism and Anti-refugee Populism in Europe: The Portuguese Case Isabel Estrada Carvalhais and Sandra Fernandes	51
Bringing Solidarity and Hostility to EU borders: The Calais Camps at the Heart of French-UK Securitization of Immigration Process Amanda C. Da Silva	75
Not Securitizing Migration? Lessons From Spain Andrea Carlà	101
The Refugee Crisis and the Re-imagined Politics of Belonging: Political Discourses on the Western Balkan Route Julija Sardelić	127
The Vanishing European Dream: The Double Crisis of Migration and European (Dis)Integration Cvete Koneska	149

Turkey as a ‘Strategic Partner’ of the European Union during the Refugee Crisis: The Challenges and Prospects
Selcen Öner	169
The European Union Crisis as a Crisis of Equality
Mario Ivan Juárez-García	191
From Identity to Morality Politics: Croatia’s Nation-State-Building During the Crisis
Timofey Agarin and Anja Pećnik	219
EU Responses to Refugee Migration: the End of (Security) Community?
Nevena Nancheva	255
Note on contributors	285