

Contents

Acknowledgments.....	11
Foreword.....	13
Introduction: A Systems Analysis of Medicine (SAM).....	19
Chapter One: The STS Toolbox.....	35
Overview	50
Resource.2	58
Technical Programs	61
Social Community Programs	63
Ethics: Doing the Right Thing	66
The STS Range	69
The STS Conversation:.....	71
Thematic Contrast Issues	76
Bioethics	79
Responsible Social Action.....	83
Characteristics of Successful Social Action.....	85
Results	88
Conclusion	88
Chapter Two: Persons Exist in Relationships.....	91
Overview	91
A phenomenological analysis of religious faith.....	94
What is a person?.....	106
Conclusion	129
In Summary	130

Chapter Three: Dialogic Spirituality	133
Overview	133
Introduction.....	133
A system-based approach to medicine.....	135
What is spirituality?	138
Discussion Note	146
The religious tendency towards good, God, and eternal life manifests itself in the spiritual nature of the person-making process... 151
Spirituality and personalized medicine	151
Conclusion	154
Glossary of Terms.....	154
Questions to assess broken spiritual associations on the arm of the carbon-self	155
Questions to assess broken spiritual associations on the arm of the social-self.....	156
Questions to assess broken spiritual associations on the arm of the internal-self.....	157
Summary: How to Conduct a Spiritual Assessment	158
Chapter Four: Why Ethics Matters.....	163
Overview	163
Introduction.....	163
Ethics regulates relationships.....	165
Dialogical Ethical Theories	168
The Oath of Hippocrates.....	174
Abortion.....	176
AMA PRINCIPLES OF MEDICAL ETHICS.....	180
Social Action	182
Palliative Care.....	189
Case Studies in Healthcare	191

Chapter Five: The Absolute Truth Value of Human Death	221
Overview	221
Conclusion	236
Conclusion.....	239
Works Cited	243
Index	249