Outline Contents — Volume II

Outline Contents — Volume II
Foreword by Stephen M. Schwebel
Table of Abbreviations
Table of Cases
Table of Treaties and Other Instruments
Contents — Volume II
Part Three: Territorial Integrity and Its Challengers
  Introduction
  Chapter 6 — Annexation of Crimea
  Chapter 7 — Three Years after Annexation: Of ‘Frozen Conflicts’ and How to Characterise Crimea
  Chapter 8 — Frozen Conflicts and International Law
Part Four: Intervention and International Law
  Introduction
  Chapter 9 — Armed Force in Aid of Secession
  Chapter 10 — The Yanukovych Letter: Intervention and Authority to Invite in International Law
  Chapter 11 — Boundaries and Rights after 2014: Helsinki at a Crossroads
  Chapter 12 — Intervention, Interveners, and Their More Subtle Means
Part Five: Legal Proceedings and Unlawful Claims
  Introduction
Chapter 13 — International Dispute Settlement in Response to an Unlawful Seizure of Territory: Three Mechanisms 313

Chapter 14 — Crimea after Cyprus v Turkey: Just Satisfaction for Unlawful Annexation? 369

Chapter 15 — Ukraine v Russian Federation in Light of Ilaşcu: Two Short Points 376

Chapter 16 — Boundaries, Their Challengers, and the Limits to Claim 387

Part Six: Non-Proliferation after Budapest 402

Introduction 402

Chapter 17 — The Budapest Memorandum of 5 December 1994: Political Engagement or Legal Obligation? 404

Chapter 18 — The Budapest Memorandum and Beyond: Have the Western Parties Breached a Legal Obligation? 444

Index 457

Outline Contents—Volume I 480