

Table of Contents

Foreword .....	11
List of Abbreviations .....	15
Introduction .....	17
Aim and Envisioned Contribution .....	18
Structure .....	20
I. Concepts and Methodology: Strategic Culture in Terms of Components, Subject and Method of Analysis, Form, Dimensions, and Explanatory Model .....	23
1. Strategic Culture – Term Definition, Conceptual Delimitation and Methodological Issues .....	23
Concept Evolution .....	23
Concept Definition .....	25
Methodology .....	27
2. Strategic Culture’s Components: Identity, Norms, Culture .....	30
Identity .....	30
Norms .....	32
Culture .....	33
3. Strategic Culture’s Subject of Analysis: Security Discourse .....	35
4. Strategic Culture’s Method of Analysis: Discourse Analysis .....	37
5. Strategic Culture’s Form: Strategy .....	38
6. Strategic Culture’s Analytical Framework: Dimensions .....	39
7. Change Conceptualization in Strategic Culture: Developing a New Explanatory Model .....	43
II. The Conceptualized National Identity of Romania .....	49
The Concept of Nation: A Never-Ending Quest .....	52

The Formative Moments.....	52
The Search for Identity.....	57
The Dichotomic Images of the State.....	59
The Westernists and the Autochthonists.....	61
The West as Romania’s Touchstone.....	62
Romania’s Two Possible Paths.....	64
The State as Insurance for the Nation.....	66
Attachment Dimensions of the Nation: Patriotism and Cohesion.....	69
Conclusion.....	70
III. Romania’s Understanding of Security.....	73
The First Discursive Period 1848-1879: Uncertain Status ...	76
Insularity.....	76
The Second Discursive Period 1878-1918: Seeking Legitimation and Avoiding Isolation.....	78
Reluctant Neutrality.....	79
Role Consolidation.....	81
Between Balancer and Irredentist.....	83
The Third Discursive Period 1919-1945: Identity Fulfillment.....	85
Romania’s External Projection: Status Quo and Insularity.....	85
Romania’s Internal Projection: Westernism and the Modernity Project.....	87
Europe as a Partner.....	88
The Fourth Discursive Period 1946-1989: The Inversion of Romania’s Security Understanding.....	89
The Communists’ Struggle for Legitimacy.....	90
“Otherness” in Romania’s Security Understanding.....	91
Romanian Communism’s Nationalism and Militarism.....	95
The Romanian Revolution: A Discourse in Itself.....	97
Conclusion.....	100

IV. Romania's Role Conception: National Strategic Documents 1990-2014	103
Methodology and Criteria of Analysis	106
1990-1995: Romania in the Grey Area	109
1996-1999: Romania in Transition	115
2001-2004: Romania in NATO	121
2005-2009: Romania in the EU	125
2010-2014: Romania in Search of a New Paradigm	131
Conclusion	136
V. Romania's Foreign Policy Orientation	139
The Europeanization of Romanian Foreign Policy Discourse	140
Europeanization: Delimiting the Terms and Understanding the Process	142
The Europeanization of Romanian Foreign and Security Discourse: From Start to Stop	145
The Atlanticization of Romanian Foreign Policy In Search of a New Paradigm	156
Conclusion	161
VI. Strategic Culture and the Use of Force	165
Security Concerns: Unchallenged and Unchanged Perceptions	166
Instruments of Foreign and Security Policy: Traditional Understanding of Security and Defense	169
The Role of the Armed Forces in Romanian Society: Trusted Institution and Diplomatic Instrument	172
Political Elites and Defense Policy: Unenthusiastic Relationship	175
Non-governmental Actors in Defense Policy Decisions: Scarce and Insignificant	177
The Use of Force: Freedom of Action and the Quest for Affirmation	178

The Romanian Armed Forces Abroad: Public Diplomacy and the Quest for Recognition.....	179
The New Expeditionary Role’s Legitimation: Not a Tool of National Interest .....	181
Romania’s Involvement Abroad Before the Ukrainian Crisis: Drifting Towards Indifference?.....	183
Conclusion .....	185
Conclusions .....	189
The Conceptualization of Change in Strategic Culture: Model Development .....	189
Findings on Romanian Strategic Culture 1990-2014: Assessment of Change .....	193
Strategic Culture’s Core: National Identity .....	194
Strategic Culture’s Intermediary Layer: Security Understanding and Role Conception.....	195
Strategic Culture’s Hull: Foreign Policy Orientation and Use of Force.....	197
Future Evolution and Predictability of Strategic Culture .....	199
Limits and Research Areas .....	200
Bibliography.....	203