

Contents

Foreword by Peter Martland	ix
Acknowledgments	xi
1. The Path of Protectionism: Church, State, and an Oppressive Institutional Design for Religion	1
2. Legacies of Sovietism: Structural-Historical Constraints	25
3. Post-Soviet Market Features: The Immediate-Strategic Context	61
4. The Georgian Orthodox Church: A Case Study in Authoritarianism	89
5. The Lithuanian Catholic Church: A Case Study in Indifference	115
6. The Russian Orthodox Church: Finding Its Voice at the Expense of Others	145
7. Regional Findings and Methodological Implications	191
8. Collusion That Matters: Church-State Symbiosis After Crimea	209
Bibliography	233
Appendix: Interview/Questionnaire Questions	255