

Contents

Editorial.....	5
Vorwort zum vorliegenden Band .....	7
Acknowledgements .....	9
Contents .....	11
1. Introduction .....	13
2. Malta – Key factors and figures .....	17
3. Theoretical framework .....	19
3.1. Theories of European Integration .....	20
3.2. Foreign Policy Approaches .....	25
3.2.1 Neorealism .....	25
3.2.2. Utilitarian Liberalism.....	27
3.2.3. Constructivism.....	28
3.3. Small State Theory .....	31
3.3.1. Difficulties in defining “smallness” .....	33
3.3.2. Problems and strategies of small states .....	36
3.3.3. Small states’ foreign policy behaviour.....	40
4. Development of Malta-EU relations .....	43
4.1. After Malta’s Independence: orientation and deterioration .....	43
4.2. Malta’s political culture and party system .....	47
4.3. 1984 to 1992: Back on the road towards EU membership .....	50
4.4. 1993 to 1999: Two Commission’s opinions and two elections .....	55
4.5. Alternatives to EU membership .....	60
4.5.1. European integration or Mediterranean collaboration?.....	61
4.5.2. Free Trade Area Agreement or Customs Union .....	62
4.6. 1999 to 2004: Negotiations, Referendum and Accession Process.....	65
5. EU membership: Economic and Political Considerations .....	77

6.	Accession Treaty and Representation in EU institutions .....	83
7.	Malta in the EU: Issue of Smallness & Political Priorities .....	85
7.1.	Large states versus small states in an Enlarged Union? .....	85
7.2.	Malta's Priority Agendas as EU Member .....	90
7.2.1.	Foreign Policy Agenda .....	90
7.2.2.	Domestic Priorities .....	93
8.	Conclusion .....	97
	References .....	101
	Official EU documents .....	107
	Internet sources .....	108
	Malta Government Documents .....	108
	Other Internet Sources .....	109
	Appendix: List of Abbreviations .....	111