

Contents

About the Authors	9
Acknowledgments	15
Foreword by H. Haumann	17
Introduction
The Stabilisation of Russia during the Putin Presidency: Critical Reflections J. Perovic, P. Casula	19
I Discourses in Russian Politics
Populism in Context D. Howarth	31
Dislocation in Context A. Norval, I. Mijnsen	39
Political and National Identity in Russia: Developments in Russian Political Thought in the 1990s P. Casula	47
II Regime Type and National Identity
What Kind of Political Regime Does Russia Have? H.-H. Schröder	67
The Specific Features and Future of Post-Soviet Transitions A. Ryabov	94
Russian Political Discourse in the 1990s: Crisis of Identity and Conflicting Pluralism of Ideas O. Malinova	107
Russian "Sovereign Democracy": A Powerful Ideological Discourse in a Quasi-Authoritarian Regime N. Hayoz	125
Varieties of Post-Communist Nationalisms in Eastern Europe K. Müller, A. Pickel	148
Russian Nationalism and Xenophobia L. Gudkov	171

III	Sovereign Democracy and its Competitors
	Sovereign Democracy as a Discourse of Russian Identity V. Hudson	189
	Sovereignty and Democracy in Contemporary Russia: A Modern Subject Faces the Post-Modern World V. Morozov	211
	Ordering Chaos: Russian Neo-Fascist Articulation Z. Bowden	248
IV	Symbols and the Past
	The Symbolic Politics of the Putin Administration I. Kurilla	269
	An Old Myth for a New Society I. Mijnsen	284
	Russia in Plural: (Re)Constructing Otherness, (De)Constructing Power A. Makarychev	306
	Rethinking Identification With the Hegemonic Discourse of a “Strong Russia” Through Laclau and Mouffe M. Müller	327
V	Outside Perspectives
	The View from Elsewhere: Western Mediation of Potential Sources of Russian Dislocation in the 1990s F. Macgilchrist	348
	“Europe” and “Russia” in Ukraine’s Narratives on National Identity: Historical and Cultural Myths S. Kobzar	369
	Constructing or Deconstructing Democracy? The Geo- political Context of Ukraine’s Democratic Choice S. Glebov	390
	Index	404