

Table of Contents

Acknowledgments	13
Preface	15
Introduction	17
Generalization Versus Distinction	22
Definitions of Mass and Serial Murder.....	28
Theoretical Aspects of Multiple-Victims Murder	29
Typologies of Mass and Serial Murder	31
Profiles of Mass and Serial Murder and Murderers	32
The Goals of the Book	34
The Innovations Presented in the Book	35
Summary	38
Chapter One
Mass Murder and Mass Murderers.....	39
Definitions	39
Characteristics	43
The Phenomenon and Its Analysis.....	43
Scope of the Phenomenon	44
Demographic Characteristic of a Mass Murderer and his Victims: Myth and Reality	45
Methodological and Theoretical Problems	47
Biological Explanations	48
Cultural and Social Explanations	49
Culture, Society and Gender	49
Psychosocial Explanations.....	56
The Psychosis Explanation.....	57
The Frustration-Aggression Explanation.....	59
Fox and Levin's Explanation of a Mass Murder	63
Mullen's Explanation (2004).....	66
Summary of the Characteristics and Explanations.....	69

Summary	71
Typologies of Mass Murder.....	73
Toward a New Typology of Mass Murder and Mass Murderers	95
The New Typology of Mass Murder and Murderers: According to the Murderer-Victims Relationships; According to the Selection of the Victims	99
Individuals in Romantic Relationships with the Murderer	99
Individuals with Family Relations with the Murderer	100
Individuals who Belong to a Defined Social Group by an Academic-Occupational Status	101
Individuals who Belong to a Social Category Which has a Conflict with the Group to Which the Murderer Belongs.....	101
Individuals who are Murdered Due to Citizenship of a Country Which is Perceived by the Murderer as an Enemy	102
Individuals who Belong to the Human Race in General Which is Perceived by the Murderer as an Archenemy	102
Criticism	102
Summary of the Phenomenon	106
Mass Murder in Israel	108

Chapter Two

Mass/Serial Murder and Murderers.....	115
Explanations and Characteristics of Mass-Serial Murder and Murderers	120
A Typology of Mass-Serial Murder and Murderers.....	123
Mass-Serial Murderers who Act on Behalf of an Ethnic- Racial Ideology	123
Mass-Serial Murderers Who Act on Behalf of a Nationalistic or Religious Ideology	124
Mass-Serial Murderers Who Act Out of Material Motives.....	125

Chapter Three

Serial Murder and Murderers.....	127
Background.....	127
Clarifying Concepts.....	127
The History of Serial Murder and Murderers.....	131
Creating the Myth of the Serial Murderer.....	132
Characteristics and Definitions of Serial Murder and Murderers.....	139
The Scope of the Phenomenon.....	147
Demographic and Geographic Characteristics of Serial Murder and Murderers.....	151
Psychological and Social Characteristics of Serial Murder and Murderers.....	154
Explanations of Serial Murder and Murderers.....	155
Methodological Problems.....	155
Biological Explanations of Serial Murder and Murderers.....	159
Psychological Explanations of Serial Murder and Murderers.....	161
Psychosocial Explanations of Serial Murder and Murderers.....	183
Summary of the Psychological and Psychosocial Theories.....	189
Sociocultural Explanations of Serial Murder and Murderers.....	192
Pornography and Serial Murder.....	199
Social Structure and Serial Murder.....	201
Mass Media and Serial Murder.....	203
Sociological Theories for Explaining Serial Murder and Murderers.....	209
The Strain Theory—Merton (1957).....	210
Differential Association Theory—Sutherland (1947).....	212
The Social Learning Theory—Akers (1973).....	214
The Self-Control Theory—Hirschi and Gottfredson (1993).....	215
The Rational Choice Theory—Cornish and Clarke (1986), Gibbs (1975).....	216
The Routine Activity Theory—Cohen and Felson (1979).....	219

Framing/Reframing	221
Techniques of Neutralization: Sykes and Matza (1957)....	221
The Self-Defense Mechanisms—Anna Freud.....	227
The Vocabularies of Motives—Mills (1940).....	230
Excuses and Justifications—Maruna and Copes (2004) ...	234
Identity and Deviation—Lofland (1969).....	236
Law Violators as Culture Heroes—Kooistra (1989).....	245
Theoretical and Multidisciplinary Model for Serial Murder and Murderers	247
Introduction.....	247
The Model.....	250
 Chapter Four
Cooling off periods among serial killers	269
Serial Murder	270
Cooling-Off Period.....	270
The Current Study	273
Results	274
Discussion.....	280
Limitations	282
 Chapter Five
Typology of Serial Murders and Murderers	285
Typologies in the Service of the Law Enforcement System	285
Typologies Suggested by Theoreticians Outside the Law Enforcement Authorities.....	287
The Typology of Holmes and Holmes.....	288
Summary	305
Positions of Serial Murderers on the Sequence/Range of Central Characteristics.....	307
1. Preoccupation with Sex.....	307
2. Acquaintance with the Victim	307
3. Power-Control Games	308
4. Multiple Crimes	309

5. Focus on the Action or Focus on the Process.....	309
A New Typology of Serial Murder and Murderers	311
1. A serial murderer of strangers and acquaintances following a felony for the sake of a material benefit	311
2. Allocating the Serial Murderer in Relation to the Six Central Characteristics.....	317
3. Ideological Serial Murder and Murderers Who Want to Purify Society.....	318
4. Serial Murderers Who Murder from Frustration/Humiliation.....	323
5. Sexual-Sadist Serial Murder and Murderers.....	332
6. Serial Murder and Murderers by Proxy.....	339
Summary of the Suggested Typology.....	348

Chapter Six

Serial Murder and Gender	355
Female Serial Murderers from Ancient History to the Early Modern Period.....	355
Female Serial Murderers in the Pre-Industrial History.....	356
The Rise of the Modern Female Serial Murderer	356
The Postmodern Female Serial Murderer.....	357
1. The Black Widow, a Female Serial Murderer for the Sake of Benefit	358
2. Serial Murder and Female Murderers —Angel of Death Type.....	358
3. Female Serial Murderers as Partners of Men.....	359
A Comparison Between Male and Female Serial Murderers ...	363
Summary	368

Chapter Seven

Serial Murder Profiling: Our Contemporary Understanding.....	371
Serial Murder.....	372
Typology of Serial Murderers.....	374
Classifying Serial Murderers as “Organized” and “Disorganized”.....	375

Profiling Serial Murders and Murderers.....	380
A General Critique of Profiling and a Specific Critique of Serial Murder Profiling	388
Summary and Conclusions	390
Chapter Eight
Serial Murders and Murderers in Israel.....	393
Examination of the Case in Relation to the Suggested.....	395
Classification	395
Analysis of the Case According to the Suggested.....	398
Classification	398
Summary	399
Knowledge from the Past	399
Limitations	401
A Glance to the Future.....	402
Bibliography.....	407
Hebrew Sources	407
English Sources	407
Endnotes	419