

Outline Contents – Volume II

Outline Contents – Volume II	v
Foreword by Stephen M. Schwebel	vii
Table of Abbreviations	viii
Table of Cases	xvi
Table of Treaties and Other Instruments	xxiv
Contents – Volume II	xxxii
Part Three: Territorial Integrity and Its Challengers	1
Introduction	1
Chapter 6 – Annexation of Crimea	4
Chapter 7 – Three Years after Annexation: Of ‘Frozen Conflicts’ and How to Characterise Crimea	53
Chapter 8 – Frozen Conflicts and International Law	91
Part Four: Intervention and International Law	170
Introduction	170
Chapter 9 – Armed Force in Aid of Secession	174
Chapter 10 – The Yanukovych Letter: Intervention and Authority to Invite in International Law	207
Chapter 11 – Boundaries and Rights after 2014: Helsinki at a Crossroads	261
Chapter 12 – Intervention, Interveners, and Their More Subtle Means	290
Part Five: Legal Proceedings and Unlawful Claims	310
Introduction	310

Chapter 13 – International Dispute Settlement in Response to an Unlawful Seizure of Territory: Three Mechanisms	313
Chapter 14 – Crimea after Cyprus v Turkey : Just Satisfaction for Unlawful Annexation?	369
Chapter 15 – Ukraine v Russian Federation in Light of Ilaşcu : Two Short Points	376
Chapter 16 – Boundaries, Their Challengers, and the Limits to Claim	387
Part Six: Non-Proliferation after Budapest	402
Introduction	402
Chapter 17 – The Budapest Memorandum of 5 December 1994: Political Engagement or Legal Obligation?	404
Chapter 18 – The Budapest Memorandum and Beyond: Have the Western Parties Breached a Legal Obligation?	444
Index	457
Outline Contents – Volume I	480