

Contents

| | |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------|
| Preface | 5 |
| About the authors | 6 |
| About the translator..... | 6 |
| Major Dynasties in Chinese History..... | 13 |
| Chapter Six: Religions in Liao, Song and Jin Dynasties and Western Xia (the Tangut Empire) | 15 |
| An Overview | 17 |
| Primitive Religions and Flourishing Buddhism in Liao..... | 19 |
| 1) Traditional Khitan beliefs and the tendency of Sinicization..... | 19 |
| 2) The prevalence of Buddhism and its characteristics | 23 |
| Religions in Song Dynasties: Syncretism and Evolution..... | 33 |
| 1) Revising and perfecting the sacrificial codes applicable to the state religion | 33 |
| 2) The equal importance of meditation and doctrine in Buddhist practice and the syncretism of Buddhism and Confucianism..... | 46 |
| 3) Thriving Daoism..... | 81 |
| 4) Manichaeism, Islam, Judaism and Zoroastrianism | 96 |
| Religions in Jin dynasty | 104 |
| 1) Conventional customs of the Jurchen people and the creation of institutions with respect to the Jurchen state religion..... | 104 |
| 2) The growing popularity of Buddhism..... | 111 |
| 3) The emergence and growth of new Daoist schools in areas north of the Yellow River..... | 118 |
| Religions in the Western Xia Dynasty | 138 |
| 1) Primitive sorcery and the cult of spirits | 138 |
| 2) The introduction and growth of Buddhism | 141 |
| 3) The Tangut Tripitaka and its significance..... | 149 |
| The second diffusion of Buddhism in Tibet and the formation of Buddhist sects..... | 151 |
| 1) Well-known Buddhist figures and their contributions in the Houhong (Second Diffusion) Period..... | 151 |
| 2) Sects of Tibetan Buddhism and their theories..... | 155 |

Chapter Seven:

Religions in Yuan Dynasty: A Boom in Faith 163

| | |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| An Overview | 165 |
| The Reconstruction and Characteristics of Official Religious Rituals..... | 166 |
| 1) The grand ceremony of offering sacrifices to Heaven | 166 |
| 2) The (Royal) Ancestral Temple | 167 |
| 3) The Imperial shrine for Earth and Grain gods | 168 |
| 4) The Imperial ceremony advocating the Kingship of Confucius..... | 168 |
| 5) Offering sacrifices to gods of mountain, river and sea | 169 |
| 6) Traditional Mongol customs | 170 |
| The development of Chinese and Tibetan Buddhism and the practice of the “Imperial Preceptor” | 170 |
| 1) The Mongol aristocrats’ adoration of Buddhism | 170 |
| 2) The development and administration of Buddhism in Yuan..... | 172 |
| 3) The unique practice of the Imperial Preceptor in Yuan..... | 176 |
| 4) The growth of Buddhist sects in the Central Plains..... | 179 |
| 5) Buddhism and Yuan culture..... | 184 |
| The Introduction and Growth of Theravada Buddhism in Yunnan..... | 186 |
| 1) The introduction of Theravada Buddhism into Yunnan | 186 |
| 2) Theories and sutras of Theravada Buddhism | 187 |
| 3) The sects, monastic hierarchy and monasteries in Theravada Buddhism ... | 189 |
| 4) Theravada Buddhism and the Dai society | 192 |
| The Prevalence and Popularity of All Truth Daoism in the Lower Reaches of Yangtze River..... | 195 |
| 1) Qiu Chuji and the rise and fall of All Truth Daoism | 195 |
| 2) The flourishing Way of Orthodox Unity in the lower reaches of Yangtze River | 202 |
| 3) The growing popularity of Jingming Dao in the lower reaches of Yangtze River | 204 |
| The Resuscitation of Yelikewen (Erkeun/Arkagun), Islam and Judaism..... | 207 |
| 1) Yelikewen (Erkeun/Arkagun): The re-introduction of Christianity into China | 207 |
| 2) The rapid growth of Islam in Yuan..... | 210 |
| 3) The development of Judaism in Yuan | 212 |
| The Rise of the White Lotus Sect and Social Changes in Late Yuan Dynasty | 213 |
| 1) The birth and growth of the White Lotus Sect..... | 213 |
| 2) The White Lotus rebellions in the late Yuan..... | 214 |

Chapter Eight:

Religions in Ming Dynasty: The Pluralistic Syncretism and Popularization 217

| | |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| An Overview | 219 |
| Development and Perfection of Rituals and Ceremonies of the Patriarchal Religion..... | 219 |
| 1) The grand ceremony of sacrificing to Heaven and Earth | 223 |
| 2) Sacrifices to the Earth and Grain gods, the Sun and Moon, the Divine Farmer, the Goddess of Silkworms and the God of Matchmakers..... | 224 |
| 3) Altars of various deities and Earthly and Celestial gods | 225 |
| 4) Sacrifices to Emperors, holy Masters, men of virtue and outstanding Ministers of all ages | 227 |
| 5) The Royal Ancestral Temple..... | 229 |
| 6) Funerals and related dressing codes..... | 230 |
| Buddhism in the Syncretism of the Three Great Teachings | 230 |
| 1) Ming's religious policies and administration of Buddhism..... | 230 |
| 2) Tsongkhapa's religious reform of Tibetan Buddhism..... | 234 |
| 3) Two great branches of the School of Meditation and their representative figures..... | 237 |
| 4) Other Buddhist schools..... | 246 |
| 5) The Great Four Buddhists in the late Ming dynasty | 250 |
| The Secularization of Daoism and the Growing Prosperity of the Daoist School of Fulu (Mysterious Symbols, Drawings and Incantations) | 257 |
| 1) The royal family and Daoism | 258 |
| 2) Two major Daoist schools: The Way of Orthodox Unity and All Truth Daoism..... | 262 |
| 3) Zhengtong Daozang 正统道藏 and 万历续道藏 Wanli xu Daozang | 267 |
| The Reintroduction of Christianity into China and Clashes with Traditional Chinese Culture | 269 |
| 1) Missionaries entered China in every possible way | 269 |
| 2) Matteo Ricci's strategy of Confucianizing Catholicism..... | 272 |
| 3) Nanjing Incident: The first conflict between Christianity and Chinese culture..... | 273 |
| 4) The revival of Christian churches in the late Ming..... | 275 |
| The Growth of Islam in Ming..... | 277 |
| 1) Islam and the Ming dynasty | 277 |
| 2) The emergence of "Scripture-Hall Education" | 278 |
| 3) The production of Chinese editions of Islamic writing..... | 280 |

| | |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| The Great Development of Popular Religions in Ming..... | 282 |
| 1) The prosperity of popular religions and the evolution of White Lotus Teaching..... | 282 |
| 2) The Luo Sect and its derivatives..... | 284 |
| 3) The Yellow Heaven Sect and the Red Sun Sect..... | 288 |
| 4) The Three-in-One Teaching..... | 290 |
| 5) General characteristics of popular religions in Ming..... | 291 |

Chapter Nine:

Religions in the Qing Dynasty: Differentiation, Development and Decline ... 293

| | |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| An Overview | 295 |
| Sacrifices in the State Religion | 295 |
| 1) Imperial Codes regarding state sacrifices..... | 295 |
| 2) Changes in state sacrifices in the late Qing dynasty..... | 297 |
| 3) The veneration of and sacrifice to Confucius | 299 |
| 4) The preservation and evolution of traditional Manchu religious customs...303 | |
| 5) The decline and persistence of traditional patriarchal religion..... | 305 |
| The Development and Decline of Buddhism in Qing..... | 306 |
| 1) The Emperor's adoration of Buddhism and the Imperial administration of Buddhism..... | 306 |
| 2) The decline of Buddhist schools | 311 |
| 3) The predominance of lay Buddhists..... | 323 |
| 4) Secular scholars' Buddhist studies | 325 |
| 5) Tibetan Buddhism in Qing..... | 329 |
| The Continuity, Diffusion and Decline of Daoism | 333 |
| 1) The decline of Zhengyi 正一 Daoism or the Way of Orthodox Unity | 334 |
| 2) Quanzhen 全真 Daoism in Qing..... | 337 |
| 3) Daozang jiyao 道藏辑要 and new Daoist writings | 342 |
| 4) The continued diffusion of Daoism in the Chinese society | 345 |
| Popular Religions in Qing..... | 350 |
| 1) The Ba'gua 八卦 (Eight-Trigram) Sect..... | 350 |
| 2) Popular religions in the late Qing..... | 352 |
| The Growth of Islam in Qing | 354 |
| 1) Chinese Tariqas..... | 355 |
| 2) Chinese translations of Islamic writings | 359 |
| 3) Chinese translations of the Koran | 364 |

| | |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| Christianity in Qing | 364 |
| 1) A great progress of missionary work in the early Qing | 364 |
| 2) The Controversy of Rites and the change of Kangxi's policy on Catholicism | 367 |
| 3) Stricter bans on Catholicism and missionary incidents in three reigns..... | 369 |
| 4) Christianity in the late Qing | 370 |
| 5) Christianity in the early modern China: Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde | 376 |

Chapter Ten:

Religions in the Republican China (1912–1949) 385

| | |
|-------------------|-----|
| An Overview | 387 |
|-------------------|-----|

| | |
|----------------------------------------------------|-----|
| The Resuscitation and Reformation of Buddhism..... | 388 |
|----------------------------------------------------|-----|

| | |
|--------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| 1) The efforts to modernize Buddhist organization | 388 |
| 2) The efforts to modernize Buddhist activities..... | 390 |
| 3) The Grotto of Storing Scriptures in Dunhuang 敦煌 | 392 |
| 4) Buddhist gurus in modern China..... | 393 |
| 5) Prominent Buddhist scholars' remarkable achievements..... | 399 |
| 6) Tibetan Buddhism in Republican China | 403 |

| | |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| The Fall and Rehabilitation of Daoism in Republican China | 405 |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------|-----|

| | |
|----------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| 1) Political situations and the fate of Daoism | 405 |
| 2) Efforts to rehabilitate Daoism | 406 |
| 3) The rise of secular scholars' studies of Daoism | 411 |

| | |
|---------------------------------------------------|-----|
| New Growth of Islam in the Republican China | 413 |
|---------------------------------------------------|-----|

| | |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| 1) The birth and growth of Islamic social organizations | 413 |
| 2) The vivid development of Islamic scholarship and culture | 415 |
| 3) Eminent Chinese Muslim scholars and their contributions | 419 |
| 4) Yang Zenxin 杨增新 (1864–1928) and Xinjiang | 421 |

| | |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| Rapid Growth of Christianity and its influence in Chinese society..... | 424 |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|

| | |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| 1) The internal and external conditions for the rapid growth of Christianity..... | 424 |
| 2) The growth of Christian orders | 425 |
| 3) Christianity and Republican politics | 430 |
| 4) Contributions Christianity made to Chinese society..... | 434 |