

Contents

Foreword by Rémi Baudouin	5
Abstract	9
List of Acronyms	19
List of Tables and Graphics.....	21
Chronology of Important Events.....	22
1. Introduction.....	25
2. Methodology	41
Ontological and Epistemological Clarifications	41
Research and Case Study Design	42
Method of Data Collection	44
Conclusion.....	46
3. Why Cosmopolitanism?.....	47
3.1 On Realist Theories.....	48
3.2 On Liberal Theories	60
3.3 On Critical Theories.....	73
3.4 On Conflict Theories.....	83
3.5 Conclusion	94
4. The Historical Landmarks of Cosmopolitanism	97
4.1 Cynic and Stoic Cosmopolitanism	98
4.2 Sixteenth Century Cosmopolitanism – Franciscus de Vitoria.....	104
4.3 Contractual Cosmopolitanism – Hobbes and Spinoza.....	111
4.4 Cosmopolitanism of the Enlightenment – Immanuel Kant.....	125
4.5 Conclusion	133

5.	Contemporary Cosmopolitan Preconditions	135
5.1	Individualism – The Core of Cosmopolitanism	136
5.2	Universalism – The Scope of Cosmopolitanism	149
5.3	Moral Obligations – Duties to Strangers	158
5.4	Institutional Order – The Moral and Political Agency .	166
5.5	Conclusion	181
6.	Critical-Political Cosmopolitanism – A Model for Peacebuilding	183
6.1	Beyond the Moral Dichotomy – Critical-Political Discourse.....	184
6.2	The Role of the Nation state	194
6.3	The Role of International Institutions and Civil Society Organizations.....	201
6.4	Principles of a Critical-Political Cosmopolitanism.....	214
6.4.1	The 1st Principle – Justice as Self- Determination	215
6.4.2	The 2nd Principle – Mutual Recognition	225
6.4.3	The 3rd Principle – Participation	233
6.4.4	The 4th Principle – Deliberation	240
6.4.5	The 5th Principle – Responsibility to ‘do no harm’	252
6.5	Conclusion	259
7.	Cosmopolitan Peacebuilding	261
7.1	The Ukrainian Situation – A Case Study	262
7.2	Crimea – An example of Cosmopolitan Conflict Prevention.....	285
7.2.1	The 1st Principle – Justice as Self-Determination..	291
7.2.2	The 2nd Principle – Mutual Recognition	305
7.2.3	The 3rd Principle – Participation	311
7.2.4	The 4th Principle – Deliberation	317

7.2.5	The 5th Principle —Responsibility to do no harm	331
7.3	The Donbas—Ideas for a possible Conflict Resolution	336
7.3.1	The 1st Principle —Justice as Self-Determination..	341
7.3.2	The 2nd Principle —Mutual Recognition	348
7.3.3	The 3rd Principle —Participation	354
7.3.4	The 4th Principle —Deliberation	357
7.3.5	The 5th Principle —Responsibility to ‘do no harm’	361
7.4	Conclusion	364
8.	Concluding Remarks and Outlook.....	369
Notes	377
Introduction	377
Chapter 2	379
Chapter 3	380
Chapter 4	383
Chapter 5	402
Chapter 6	412
Chapter 7	415
References	419