

Table of Contents

FOREWORD

Mokaya Bosire.....ix

1. Gendered Dichotomies in Language Use, and Youth Usage in African Settings

Taiwo Oloruntoba-Oju.....1

2. Gender Binaries in African Youth Language: The Case of Camfranglais

Comfort Beyang Oben Ojongnkpot.....35

3. Gender, Age and Rural-Urban Dichotomies in S'ncamtho Familiarity and Usage in Zimbabwe

Sambulo Ndlovu.....61

4. Clever or Smarter? Style and Indexicality in Gendered Constructions of Male and Female Youth Identities in Kenya and South Africa

Ellen Hurst-Harosh and Fridah Kanana Erastus.....79

5. From Slanging to Code-mixing ..., Pidginization ..., Antilanguages ..., and Paroemic routines: Gender Dichotomies and Dynamics in the Language of Nigerian Undergraduates on social media

Taiwo Oloruntoba-Oju and Omotayo Oloruntoba-Oju.....97

6. Lugha ya Mitaani, Gender Stereotypes and Sexism. "Catcalling" as a Communicative Practice of Male Youths in Urban Public Spaces in Tanzania

Uta Reuster-Jahn129

7. Gendered Stereotypes and Discriminative Language in Luyaaye, Ugandan Youth Language

Saudah Namyalo.....161

8. Hustling Vibaya: Femininities and the Modern Kenya Woman

Philip Rudd and Fridah Kanana Erastus.....189

9. Gender Dynamics in Camfranglais : A Study of Female and Male Cameroonian Musicians

Elizabeth Bi Maondo Abang	215
10. Fluid Gender Identity Doing in the African Diaspora in New Zealand Oluwatoyin Olasimbo Kolawole	237
11. 'Baby, I'm coming': The Linguistic Construction of Orgasm by Female Youth in Rural and Urban Nigeria Eyo Mensah, Romanus Aboh and Lucy Ushuple	257
12. Intersecting Youth Digital Practices and Homosexuality: Identity Construction, Ideological Framing and Decolonisation in Homosexuality Narratives on Nigerian Twitter Paul Onanuga and Josef Schmied	281
13. Li(ea)ving Behind the Mask: The Stylistics of Nigerian Sexual Diversity, and Homophobic Discourse in The Digital Media Rasaq Atanda Ajadi	307
Gendered Dichotomies in African Youth Language : A POSTSCRIPT Fiona Mc Laughlin	325