

Contents

Editors and Authors (in Alphabetical Order)..... 7

Personal Experiences of Displaced Scholars

Mobilization of International Academic Networks
Tamara Martsenyuk & Tetiana Kostiuchenko 15

Surviving Occupation in Mariupol: The First Three Weeks of the War
Yuliia Soroka 29

Parenthood Vs. Civic Duty: Reflections from Ukraine at War
Kateryna Zarembo..... 55

Personal Experiences of Civil Society Resistance

Imagining Postwar Ukraine: Identity, Structure, Agency
Mychailo Wynnyckyj 71

Civil society, Business, and European Networks During the War
Yuliia Bidenko 89

Going CRUD: People’s War and Information Warfare as a Civic Counteroffensive against the Russian Invasion of Ukraine
Ivan Gomza 115

Personal Experiences of People in Culture and Literature

“Dove of Peace – Pigeon of War” Art Intervention: The Practice of Solidarity in an Urban Public Space of Berlin
Polina Stohnushko..... 143

Victims No More: Ukrainian Literature Reacts to the Invasion
Rostyslav Semkiv 165

First Novels, Then Tanks: Contemporary Russian Military Fiction (2009–22) and Ukrainian Literature about the War (2015–22)
Mariia Shuvalova	185

Personal Experiences of Small Business and the International Community

Info Sapiens’ Work during the First Year of Full-Scale War: A Deputy Director’s Memories
Inna Volosevych	203
Central and Eastern European Regional Solidarity, European Resilience, and Deterrence
Sergiy Gerasymchuk	235
Diaspora Mobilization for Ukraine in Berlin: A Participant Observation
Oleksandra Keudel	253