

Contents

Introduction: The Volume's Context and Foci Felix Riefer	7
I Chauvinism & Imperial Echoes
Are Russians Imperialists? From Putin's Wars to Russia's War Michael McFaul	19
Reviving the Native Faith: Nationalism in Contemporary Slavic Paganism of the Rodnoverie Movement Kaarina Aitamurto	33
A "Third Way" –or Back to the Third Reich? Aleksandr Dugin's Journal Elementy in Its Historical Context Leonid Luks	51
Zhirinovskii as a Fascist: Palingenetic Ultra-Nationalism and the Emergence of the Liberal-Democratic Party of Russia, 1992–1993 Andreas Umland	73
Between Nationalism and Imperialism: Pan-Slavism in Modern Russia Mikhail D. Suslov	101
The "New Political Novel" by Right-Wing Writers in Post-Soviet Russia Rosalind Marsh	115
II Geopolitics & Conspiracy
Global Crises as Western Conspiracies: Russian Theories on Oil Prices and the Ruble Exchange Rate Alexander Etkind and Ilya Yablokov	145

The Night Wolves' Anti-Maidan and Cultural Representations of Russian Imperial Nationalism Andrey Makarychev and Alexandra Yatsyk	183
A Realist View from Moscow: Identity and Threat Perception in the Writings of Sergei A. Karaganov, 2003–2019 Boris Barkanov	203
The Importance of Ideology in the Works of Alexander Zinoviev Michael Kirkwood	257
Russia's Revisionist Foreign Policy and the Flawed Diaspora Discourse in Germany Felix Riefer	287
Russia's Arlington? The Federal Military Memorial Cemetery near Moscow Mischa Gabowitsch	317
About the Editors and Contributors	371