

Contents

Preface.....	5
Foreword
Galia Ackerman	9
Ukrainophobic Imaginations of the Russian Siloviki : The Case of Nikolai Patrushev, 2014-2023
Martin Kragh and Andreas Umland	13
Putinism against Ukraine: From Identification to Genocide
Alexander Etkind	33
The Methodology of the “Russian World” as the Technological Foundation for Ukrainophobia
Andrew Wilson	49
Sandarmokh, a Symbol of Russia’s Historical Responsibility for Colonial Violence against Ukraine
Sergei Lebedev	69
Through the Russian Gaze: Perceptions of Ukraine and Ukrainians
Alexey Levinson	87
Ukraine and Ukrainians in Russian Higher Education and Science
Dmitry Dubrovskiy	111
Incitement to Genocide against Ukrainians in Russian Propaganda
Andrey Kalikh and Yuri Dzhibladze	133
Between Apathy and Paranoia: Russian Diplomats, Conspiracy Theories, and Ukraine
Boris Bondarev	153

Memory, Myth, and Militarisation: Russia's War Propaganda
and the Construction of Legitimised Violence in Ukraine
Andreas Heinemann-Grüder..... 171

Putin's Genocidal Quest for Symbolic Immortality
Anton Shekhovtsov..... 189